

The Chinese American Museum and
The Chinese Historical Society of Southern California

A reception to mark the release of a special edition of the Gum Saan Journal

Delbert Wong: First Chinese American Judge

by Marshall Wong

Marshall Wong is the youngest son of Judge Delbert Wong. He currently coordinates anti-hate crime programs for the L.A. County Commission on Human Relations. His book is an inspiring story about a man who made history.

Saturday, August 21, 2004

3 p.m. Reception, 3:30 p.m. Program, 4:30 - 6:00 p.m. Tour CAM

FREE at the Chinese American Museum located at El Pueblo Historical Monument 425 N. Los Angeles St., Los Angeles. For more information: (213) 485-8567

"Judge Delbert Wong must be recognized as one of the most important pioneers for Chinese Americans as well as Asian Americans in the United States." - Albert Lum

